2016 CFP Pharmacy Forum:

“Pharmageddon or Business as Usual”

Thursday, November 24th, 2016

Westin Bristol Place Hotel

8am – 2:45pm

Pharmacy Forum 2016, will take stock of pharmacy’s adaptation to the new reality of lower product margins, reduced provincial funding for distribution, and the enticement of new revenue streams from expanded pharmacy services. Recent data suggests that the uptake of new services may be slow and limited in its’ reach. Will this be enough? What next?

Moderator – Dr. Zubin Austin

The Current Landscape – Why is the change pharmacists are facing now, any different than changes in the past?

Dr. Lisa Dolovich – OPEN Study Co-Chair – Insights into the Delivery of Pharmacy Services in Ontario

Ms. Margaret Wing – CEO – Alberta Pharmacists Association

Dr. Ned Pojskic – Green Shield Canada– Shifts in the Private Payer Market

Panel Discussions
